Facebook Reaches 500 Million Active Users

According to an announcement made in July, half a billion people are now using facebook for their social networking needs. For those who find it difficult to grasp the enormity, this means that one in 14 people on Earth have an active Facebook account. India and Brazil are two countries that do not have a large user population on Facebook, but CEO Mark Zuckerberg is confident this will change in the near future. The Facebook team's goal is to reach 1 billion users to match that of Google. The number of people who access Facebook on their mobile phones is expected to grow as more and more people purchase smart phone in order to stay connected to their social networks.
