

“We should give artists the right to express their own views in any creative form they prefer, free of any religious restriction or government intervention.”

To what degree do you agree or disagree with this statement?

You have 90 minutes to write an essay on the topic given above. Your essay should have at least 300 words and contain reasons and any relevant examples that support your arguments.